Research participation · choose ONE option before starting

Name: _____ Group: _____ Date: _____

Your answers, scores and essay may be analysed for vocabulary-learning research. Participation is voluntary. Taking the test without participating does not affect your grade. Your name is used for teacher assessment; research reporting will not identify you. You may ask your teacher to withdraw your research data before anonymisation.

[ ] I agree to participate in the research.

[ ] I want to take the test without participating in the research.

RT1 · Evolve 5 · Unit 7

Group 216 · Test Version A

For questions 1–20, choose ONE best answer and shade A, B, C, D or E on the separate ZipGrade answer sheet. Do not write MCQ answers on this question paper. Check the question numbers carefully. Fill in your name and group (Period). Select Version A if using that field. Write the essay on the separate double-sided essay sheet. Mark your research participation choice before starting the test.

Vocabulary and collocations · 1–8

1. Choose the expression that best fits the meaning and usage in this context.
A promotion doubled Nina's salary, but she still felt that her work achieved nothing useful. Volunteering at a literacy centre finally gave her a sense of ___.

A. inclination
B. aspiration
C. scarcity
D. calling
E. fulfilment

2. Choose the expression that best fits the meaning and usage in this context.
Most people find emergency medicine exhausting, but Sam cannot imagine doing anything else. He sees it as his ___, rather than just a way to earn money.

A. aspiration
B. conundrum
C. fulfilment
D. calling
E. inclination

3. Choose the expression that best fits the meaning and usage in this context.
Alex enjoys his colleagues' company, but his natural ___ is to work independently. He usually chooses tasks he can complete alone.

A. aspiration
B. inclination
C. scarcity
D. calling
E. fulfilment

4. The cheaper supplier is unreliable; the reliable supplier would make the project unaffordable. Choosing between them has become a real ___ for the team.

A. scarcity
B. inclination
C. aspiration
D. calling
E. conundrum

5. Which sentence uses "shadowing" correctly in meaning and usage?

A. I spent the day shadowing a colleague to see how she handled customers.
B. I was shadowing a colleague, so I formally evaluated her performance.
C. I was shadowing a colleague, which meant I recruited her for the vacancy.
D. I was shadowing a colleague, so I permanently replaced her in the team.
E. I spent the day shadowing a colleague, which meant I trained her for her new role.

6. Which sentence uses "entrepreneurial" correctly in meaning and usage?

A. Following the existing office rules exactly showed her entrepreneurial skills.
B. Filing the old records alphabetically showed her entrepreneurial skills.
C. Arriving at the same time every day showed her entrepreneurial skills.
D. Typing the meeting notes without mistakes showed her entrepreneurial skills.
E. Finding a new market for the café showed her entrepreneurial skills.

7. A trainee began checking facts carefully and treating customers more patiently after working with an experienced colleague who modelled these habits. Which expression describes the colleague's role?

A. a ripple effect of
B. a calling to
C. a yardstick for
D. a scarcity of
E. a good influence on

8. A small change to the bus timetable meant that dozens of workers could finally reach their shifts on time. Which expression describes the practical impact of the change?

A. find a calling
B. make a difference
C. take pleasure in
D. act on a whim
E. sweeten the deal

Grammar · 9–16

9. Choose the form that completes the sentence: She put off ___ the expensive course until she had compared the alternatives.

A. enrolling on
B. enrol on
C. to enrolling on
D. to enrol on
E. having enrol on

10. Choose the form that completes the sentence: We cannot afford ___ a decision that ignores the long-term costs.

A. make
B. to making
C. to make
D. having make
E. making

11. Choose the correct completion: She was the first applicant ___ a workable solution.

A. to proposing
B. to propose
C. propose
D. having propose
E. proposing

12. He remembered locking the office before leaving. What does this mean?

A. He reminded himself to lock the office later.
B. He stopped locking the office regularly.
C. He arranged for another person to lock it.
D. He recalled an action that had already happened.
E. He forgot to lock the office.

13. Choose the correct completion: If I ___ a more reliable income now, I would be less anxious about changing careers.

A. would have
B. have
C. had
D. had had
E. will have

14. Choose the correct completion: If she had read the reviews, she ___ the unsuitable product last week.

A. will not have bought
B. would not buy
C. did not buy
D. would not have bought
E. had not bought

15. Choose the sentence in which will after if expresses willingness rather than a predicted future event.

A. If the price will fall tomorrow, I will buy it.
B. If the delivery will arrive late, I will complain.
C. If it will rain tonight, we will cancel.
D. If you will wait here, I will speak to the manager.
E. If the shop will close at six, I will go earlier.

16. Choose the correct completion: She accepted ___ offer because it was ___ only one that included training.

A. an / an
B. a / the
C. an / the
D. the / an
E. the / a

Group-specific vocabulary · 17–20

17. Which sentence uses “barista” correctly in meaning and usage?

A. The barista designed the café’s building as his main job.
B. The barista adjusted the grinder and prepared the espresso.
C. The barista represented the café in court as her main job.
D. The barista approved the restaurant’s annual accounts.
E. The barista repaired the café’s plumbing as her main job.

18. Which sentence uses “refund” correctly in meaning and usage?

A. The shop gave me a refund, returning the money I had paid.
B. The shop gave me a refund by accepting a deposit before the purchase.
C. The shop gave me a refund by charging a fee for delivery.
D. The shop gave me a refund by lending me money to buy a flat.
E. The shop gave me a refund by reducing the price before I bought anything.

19. Which sentence uses “cohesion” correctly in meaning and usage?

A. Adding more advanced words automatically ensured cohesion even though no sentences were linked.
B. Making the writer’s opinion more original improved cohesion without changing any sentence links.
C. Adding clear pronoun references and linking expressions improved the text’s cohesion.
D. Correcting the essay’s contradictory conclusion improved its cohesion, without changing how its sentences were linked.
E. Printing the essay in a larger font improved its cohesion.

20. Which sentence uses “coherence” correctly in meaning and usage?

A. Removing the contradiction between the argument and conclusion improved coherence.
B. Adding random linking words ensured coherence even though the argument still contradicted itself.
C. Increasing the font size improved the argument’s coherence.
D. Adding longer words ensured coherence without correcting the contradictory argument.
E. Replacing every noun with a pronoun ensured coherence even though the argument remained illogical.

Essay · about 250 words

Choose ONE topic. Write about 250 words (recommended range: 225–275). Consider both perspectives, support your ideas with examples and give a reasoned conclusion. Use your own words. Do not use AI or copy task sentences or the reading preview. General or invented examples are welcome; personal disclosure is not required.

1. Meaningful work matters more than a high salary. To what extent do you agree?

2. Having more choices does not always make people happier. Discuss the advantages and disadvantages of a wide range of choices.

3. Companies should take responsibility for encouraging impulsive purchases. To what extent do you agree?

4. Paying people for small favours can damage relationships. Discuss both perspectives.

Write your essay on the separate essay sheet. Only the research participation box may be filled in on this question paper; use ZipGrade for answers 1–20.